

Transcript
Stories of Hope - Joseph

Joseph: My connection to substance use disorder is that I have it and I am now a person in long term sustained recovery from it.

Let us use this life and this light and these words as a beacon of hope.

So, when I tell people like poetry saved my life, it's not a platitude. I knew that I had something that could help, and a good thing came from it.

[End of Audio]
Duration: 30 seconds